Seminar Overview

ConferenceDirect is pleased to offer four more of our popular IndustryInsights half-day seminars in the Fall of 2017: the most cost effective way for hotels, DMOs and service suppliers to meet face-to-face with ConferenceDirect associates, clients and prospects in key cities.

IndustryInsights seminars consist of a Networking Breakfast followed by a three-hour Educational Session with industry leaders covering current trends and “hot topics” impacting the meetings community. The program concludes with a Networking Luncheon that allows your sales representatives to finalize their new and enhanced relationships with senior meeting decision-makers from ConferenceDirect and our client base.
